

1. Which best describes a riff?

- A repeated accompanying section of music
- A quiet section of music
- A sudden and loud section of music
- None of the above

2. What is a hook?

- A musical/lyrical phrase that stands out
- A return to the beginning of the piece
- A type of ostinato
- An ornament usually found on the back of doors

3. Where are hooks and riffs commonly found?

- In baroque concertos
- In Gregorian chants
- In organ voluntaries
- In popular music

4. What is the effect of a repeated riff?

- It's a timesaver for lazy composers!
- It drags out the piece longer
- It quickly becomes familiar to the listener
- None of the above

5. Popular songs often feature

- verse and chorus
- riffs
- hooks
- All of the above

Riff and Hook Questionnaire

6. What is a sequencer?

- A type of loop pedal used by guitars
- A repetitive passage (like an ostinato)
- A type of computer program designed to playback notation
- None of the above

7. What best describes 'groove'?

- A popular catchphrase in the 1990s
- A rhythmic 'feeling' created by a band's rhythm section
- A type of music often heard in funerals
- A wavy line usually written above notes on a score

8. What are emotional pop love songs often called?

- 'Screamo' metal tracks
- Ballads
- Shred improvisations
- None of the above

9. Which commonly feature in standard pop song form?

- Chorus
- Verse
- Instrumental Solo
- All of the above

10. What is a sequence?

- A series of quiet and contrasting chord progressions
- A group of different time signature changes
- An immediate of a motif/melodic passage at a different pitch
- None of the above